Hi Gerry,

Thought you'd be interest to know we got a write up in Science Now on the IntCal paper.

Best wishes
Paula

And the paper

Dear all,

The IntCal09 files are now online (though not linked to the home page yet) here:

<http://www.radiocarbon.org/IntCal09.htm>

The articles are listed online here:

[https://www.uair.arizona.edu/holdings/journal/issue?
r=http://radiocarbon.library.arizona.edu/Volume51/Number4/](https://www.uair.arizona.edu/holdings/journal/issue?r=http://radiocarbon.library.arizona.edu/Volume51/Number4/)) and should be up later today.

Thanks to you all for a tremendous effort!

Best wishes
Paula

Dear all,

Attached is the revised version of the IntCal09 paper with a color figure to replace Figure 2 and an extra figure inserted as Fig3. I think it answers the reviewers comments and reservations reasonably well.

This has to be to the typesetter by the morning of 4 January so if you spot any glaring mistakes please let me know ASAP. Apologies that I didn't get this out to you until the holidays.

Best wishes for a good 2010!
Paula
